

McIVERS GRANT PUBLIC LIBRARY

STRENGTHENING OUR COMMUNITY

DEC 2018

LEGO CHRISTMAS IS ALMOST HERE...

Once again, McIver's Grant is gearing up for another wonderful LEGO Christmas. Bring children of all ages to your library on December 3rd, from 5:30pm to 6:30pm, to see LEGOMan, visit with Santa, play games and make crafts. Help us celebrate a Very Merry (LEGO) Christmas!

OH NO, SNOW!

McIversGrantPublicLibrary.org

Are you worried about getting stuck inside during upcoming snowy days? Don't worry, our website is here for you!! You can renew and request books online using your library card, download digital books, audio books and movies, and the kids can still do research and get their homework done. ;)

Art Wall

During December, McIver's Grant is proud to showcase Linda Parker's intricate handiwork that uses paper, cloth and other media.

Art Talks

Kendall Parker, Nov. Art Wall

Please join us at 4pm on Thursday, December 6th to hear Mr. Kendall Parker discuss woodworking and highlights from his collection of handmade pieces.

IT'S OFFICIAL

Christmas is officially here and McIver's Grant is in the holiday mood! When you visit us for your holiday break reading needs, take a look around at all the decorating we've been up to!

Want to Help?

Do you love your library and want to give back?

- After the holidays, we'll need help inventorying the collection.
- Our very active Kid's Zone always needs event help.
- Tell your elected officials how important the library is to a thriving community
- Consider an end-of-year financial contribution to help us keep going next year.

DID YOU KNOW?

In addition to events and programs within the library, McIver's Grant librarians do community outreach each month, such as presenting StoryTime to local schools & daycare centers.

Turkey Tuesday

It was all hands on deck at the library November 20th for our Turkey Tuesday festivities. Participants helped each other make a Thankful Pie, played games like Shake Your (Turkey) Tailfeather and used corny jokes to puzzle out clues in our Thanksgiving-themed Escape Room.
