Read Around the Library

READ AROUND THE LIBRARY

Young library patrons and their families came to McIver's Grant Public Library's annual Read Around the Library event on the evening of March 2nd to hear community members read beloved children's stories and celebrate early literacy. After a welcome from Director Kathryn McBride, Judge Stafford led children in an enthusiastic 'Oath to Read'. Between reading stations, four lucky winners took home door prizes. The event, spearheaded each year by library supporters Pat Jones and Patsye Jones and powered by a faithful group of readers, is a highlight of the library's calendar and gives Dyer County children a chance to see their teachers and classmates in new settings.

Do you know of someone who can't provide a current address?

There are lots of reasons why someone might not be able to provide a current address to the library, but that doesn't mean they can't use the library! Ask about our eCards: digital access only, that allows anyone to check out our digital titles, even if they can't take our print materials home.
