New ESOL Classes

We are so excited to announce a new class, free for adults, launching on September 23th from 5p-7p in the Community Room. ESOL (English for Speakers of Other languages) are free, open access classes for adults who want to develop their English language skills. After September 23rd, classes will be held Tuesdays 2p-4p and Thursdays 5p-7p.

These classes will be taught by the same instructors who currently offer free HiSet courses for adults seeking to complete their high school equivalency tests. The ESOL class capacity will be 15 people and students can't begin classes until they register and take an initial assessment test, so be sure to register today: (731) 259-0080 or crockettdyerae@gmail.com.

These classes are a precious resource, one of the only resources for adults learning the English language in West Tennessee, even including Memphis!

SOUTHERN FEST. OF BOOKS

The Southern Festival of Books is returning to McIver's! Once again, we've been asked to host a very special live stream conversation with authors Shanna Miles (For All Time: A Novel), Raquel Vasquez Gilliland (How Moon Fuentes Fell in Love with the Universe), Rachael Lippincott (Lucky List: A Novel) as part of the 2021 Southern Festival of Books, hosted by Humanities Tennessee. Join us on our Facebook page to listen in and post your own questions to the authors: Tuesday, September 21, 6pm.

Constitution Day Challenge

{ Psst... }

Did you hear?

Our very own Youth Services Librarian Vanessa Cain won 1st Place for the Daughters of the American Revolution TN Outstanding Virtual Event for her ReadsSquared Constitution Day Challenge! To celebrate, Constitution Day Challenge is open again through our ReadsSquared page. Check it out: <http://migpl.readsquared.com/>

Join us for FREE classes on video production, editing & advertising

- Are you a business owner? • Interested in a new creative outlet?
- Want to build your advertising/YouTube/TikTok skills?

Director's Cut classes cover the basics of sound and lighting for the amateur videographer. No need to bring equipment. McIver's Grant Public Library will provide what's needed. Classes build on each other, so participants will want to attend each class.

Class capacity is 8 people. SIGN UP NOW! A waitlist is available.

WHALE OF A TALE TEEN ART&WRITING CLUB

DIVE IN and get creative in the library's Teen Area. Writing prompts and art supplies provided, but artists are free to explore without structure.
